

Heuristics Evaluation of Goa University Website

1. Visibility of system status

- Visibility is Good Enough

2. Match between system and the real world

- There is match between system and real world
- Expected result is being returned when clicked on any of the links

3. User Control and Freedom

- Easy to navigation between contents
- Drop down menus provided on header with quick access links
- Search bar is provided to search content on website

4. Consistency and Standards

- Color is cosistent through out the website
- Wesbite is resposive on all display sizes

5. Error preventation make it difficult to make errors

- Drop down menus provided with available options

6. Recognition rather than recall

- No recalling is required.
- Website can be easily navigated with recognition

7. Flexibility and efficiency of use

- Good enough to use
- Flexible to use on phone too

8. Aesthetic and Minimalist Design

- Not the best looking website, but good enough
- Very cluttered with large images everywhere
- Not minimal design

9. Help user Rezognize, Dagniose and Recover from Errors

- Users can reset their forgotton pasword
- Warnings are shown in forms if invalid input is given

10. Help and Documentation

- No help and documentaion provided